Single Supplement pricing applies as follows:

$1485.00 Balcony and $1117.00 Interior inclusive of taxes, govt. fees, NCFs before gratuities, VPP Insurance, Airport Transfers and Airfare.

Triple: $150 per person x 3 people = $450.00/stateroom due at the time of reserving the stateroom with full names.

Quad: $150 per person x 4 people = $600.00/stateroom due at the time of reserving the stateroom with full names.

Suites: $150.00 at the current prevailing rate based on suite availability. Gratuities for Suites are $18.00 per person plus $72.00 per person. Insurance for suites starts at $129 and goes up in price based on the total cost of the Suite.

NOTE: Changes in occupancy will change stateroom pricing and the stateroom type at the time of the requested charter. The cruise line can require a quad stateroom to change to a triple stateroom if the stateroom occupancy drops, and this applies if a triple stateroom drops to a double occupancy. This new stateroom will be priced at current rates and will be based on available staterooms.

Therefore, travelers should first attempt to change a passenger's name inside the stateroom versus changing/dropping occupancy of the stateroom.

Carnival Cruise Lines' Name Change Policy:

- Carnival Cruise Lines charges $50 per name change after 76 days before departure. Name changes are free that do not include airfare booked through Carnival.
- Name changes are free if they are not booked under a restricted or non-refundable fare.
- Name changes are not allowed for Early Saver prices or special offers. (We avoid booking this cruise far
- A name change involves canceling one guest and adding a new guest to a booking.
- At least one name on the original booking must remain unchanged.
- Carnival may impose restrictions on name changes based on special circumstances.
- If a name change isn't allowed, the original guest may be subject to cancellation penalties.

We encourage all family members to book within our allotted group space, which is only offered through Travel & Events Extraordinaire LLC, to receive group pricing, amenities, group dining assignments, as well as all air and ground transportation where requested. We cannot service any reservations outside of our agency and we will not link dining facilities to any travel for staterooms booked outside this group. Staterooms not booked within the group space will hurt the group's ability to meet the contract requirements.

Hotel Arrangements / *Ground Transportation:

If travelers desire to arrive into San Francisco, CA, the day before the cruise departs or extend their stay after the cruise returns to experience any of Carnival's pre- or post-cruise excursions, and if we receive enough requests, we can arrange a group rate at a local hotel partner that is close to the departure port. A minimum of 10 rooms are required for a hotel group contract.

If the entire family decides to arrive into San Francisco on the day before the cruise to stay overnight, our agency can remove the airport transfers and obtain a motor coach contract proposal for round trip transfers from the hotel in San Francisco to the cruise port with luggage handling AND from the San Francisco cruise port to the San Francisco Airport arrival transfer from the San Francisco airport can be considered once we know all airline schedules that are reserved. In some cases, Uber, Lyft or a Taxi may work best here.

Carnival does not provide transfers on the day before a cruise from the airport unless the hotel is reserved through the agency, which will price per person for the room versus per room which our way saves clients money.

Airline Ticketing Service Fee:

Travel & Events Extraordinaire LLC, assesses an airline ticketing fee of $25 per flight reservation if everyone in the stateroom is from the same family and on the same reservation. Travelers who are not from the same family who share a stateroom which requires two separate flight tickets, will each be charged $25.00 to manage flights. The $25 service fee covers flight research which aligns with airport transfers and cruise departure and return times, seat selection where applicable, and rebooking of cancelled or changed flights.

Cancellation Policies of Carnival and Travel & Events Extraordinaire LLC:

If a traveler must cancel their stateroom reservation, the following Cancellation Guidelines will convey:

Cancel before May 1, 2026, Forfeit $150.00 of cruise fare per person plus a $25.00 agency fee to reverse a stateroom reservation.
